

Spring 2023. 25th Annual General Meeting, News and Information

Welcome to all members,

I hope this Spring Newsletter finds you well and looking forward to some warmer weather. We now prepare for the 2023 AGM the date and time for this is April 19th at 10.30am in the Guild Hall and I look forward to seeing as many of you as possible there. Enclosed in the Newsletter are papers, reports and the agenda for the AGM.

What is it they say, as you get older the years fly by more quickly; it certainly doesn't seem five minutes since the last AGM. Where did the time go? I trust life has been kind and that you have had all the Covid vaccinations as well as the flu jab, Covid continues to be with us and life will never be quite the same.

The committee has been busy keeping your u3a running smoothly, reviewing and updating routines and documents as well recruiting new members for our groups and activities. If you would like to consider being on the committee you would be more than welcome. Committee meetings are lively affairs and a chance to mould the future of your u3a. Why not come and sit in on a meeting and find out more about how things work. Please remember the u3a can only operate with a committee. We have vacancies on the committee and we are happy to receive nominations on the form enclosed and returned to our Business Secretary.

Please look out for the new website. It is currently under construction by members of the committee under the guidance of Walter Jaggli.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank my fellow committee members for their help and support over the last twelve months. U3a life is gradually resuming what it was pre-pandemic and Group Leaders are to be congratulated for their commitment to making it so.

Now over to you the members for ideas to make our u3a even better. The u3a will be taking part in the Cheadle Arts Week, so look out for the work of our talented members. Would you like some six week courses on subjects like poetry workshops, theatre or art gallery visits, how about dusting down that old recorder you played in the infants and enjoy playing it with a group of like minded people? The committee would really welcome your ideas.

I thought they said that retirement was restful. I, like you, find it difficult to believe I had time to work! Remember the motto of the u3a, Live, Laugh, Learn.

Jenny Crump
Chairman

Coffee morning, a chance to catch up with friends, check out the latest holidays, meet committee members.
An impromptu Knit and Natter discussion with the Group Leaders.
