

Cheadle (Staffordshire) u3a Policy for Safeguarding.

Cheadle u3a will neither condone nor tolerate any form of abuse or neglect and believes that all people should be able and where necessary enabled to live in an environment which is safe.

This Policy and Procedure is written to enable Cheadle u3a Committee to act appropriately whenever possible or where instances, or allegations of, actual abuse or neglect comes to their attention.

We are legally obliged to share this information and have chosen to divide this document into three sections for ease of reading and reference.

Section 1: Safeguarding information and overview

Section 2: Cheadle u3a Policy

Section 3: The procedure flow- chart.

It is not appropriate for Cheadle u3a to take the lead role in any Safeguarding Enquiry under Section 42 of the Care Act 2014(England and Wales).

Cheadle u3a Committee has concluded that the most effective approach to implement this policy and procedure will be through a Safeguarding Group led by the Chair. Currently this is a group of four committee members, the Chair and three others, who have relevant safeguarding training, knowledge.

Where there are concerns for a member's wellbeing or safety, Cheadle u3a Safeguarding Group will consider the safeguarding risks and views of the member concerned, seek advice and support from the Trust where necessary, and, if necessary contact relevant statutory authorities as needed.

We will endeavour to respond to any situation in a way which is caring, effective and enabling. The member's social environment, along with kindness and friendship within our u3a is very important.

SECTION 1: Safeguarding information and overview

This section is included as an informative and reference point to enable Safeguarding to be put in context.

Trustees refers to members of the Committee who hold this role.

Point 3 in this section outlines responsibilities of members, this is repeated in Section 3 'Our Policy'.

This section talks about the responsibilities of the whole Committee. At Cheadle u3a there is a Safeguarding group who are the first point of contact for members.

1. What is safeguarding?

"Safeguarding" refers to measures designed to protect the health, wellbeing and human rights of individuals.

- All u3a members have a responsibility to report any safeguarding concerns to the Cheadle u3a Safeguarding group, who represent the whole committee
- All u3a members have an obligation to follow their safeguarding policy and procedure if they suspect that a member is at risk of abuse.

2. What are some examples of where safeguarding procedures may be activated?

- A member controlling the finances of a visually impaired member.
- A member arriving at an outdoor-based group without appropriate clothing and seemingly confused.
- A member making advances towards another member with dementia.

3. What is the responsibility of members in safeguarding?

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility, and members must bring any safeguarding concerns they have to their committee (this can be via their group leader). Members should follow their code of conduct and not keep any concerns they have to themselves.

4. What is the responsibility of the committee in safeguarding?

All trustees must take reasonable steps to protect anyone who comes in contact with u3a from harm. Every trustee should have clear oversight of how safeguarding and protecting people from harm are managed within the u3a. Trustees must report all safeguarding concerns to the relevant safeguarding authorities promptly. Trustees should support those involved in safeguarding incidents but should not lead safeguarding investigations- this must be left to the authority it is referred to (e.g., social services).

Once a safeguarding concern has been raised, it should be referred onto the appropriate authority. Usually, this would be the local authority or social services in England, Scotland and Wales and the HSC Trust in Northern Ireland. In cases where the individuals involved are in immediate danger you should call 999. Additionally, Hourglass (previously Action on Elder Abuse) <https://www.wearehourglass.org> is a confidential support and advice for older people who have been abused or people who know an older person who may be suffering abuse. Available weekdays 9am - 5pm on freephone 0808 808 8141.

5. What are the signs and indicators of abuse and neglect?

Abuse may be inflicted by anyone that the member comes into contact with. There are many signs and indicators that may suggest abuse or neglect including:

- Unexplained bruises or injuries – or lack of medical attention for an injury
 - Nonattendance at interest groups without reason and no response to reminders from group leaders or other members.
 - Significant loss or gain of weight and/or an unkempt appearance.
 - A change in the behaviour or confidence of a member, where they become quiet and withdrawn, or lash out in anger.
 - A member showing fear of a particular group or individual.
 - A member who sends unwanted sexually explicit text messages to a vulnerable member
 - Threats of physical harm and bullying, or intentional striking of another member.
- Additionally, a member may report they are being abused – i.e., a disclosure.

6. How do you deal with a disclosed safeguarding concern?

If someone discloses a safeguarding concern to you:

Do:

- Stay calm and try not to show shock or disbelief.
- Listen carefully to what they are saying.
- Be sympathetic (“I’m sorry that this has happened to you”).
- Be aware of the possibility that medical evidence might be needed.
- Tell the person that:
 - They did the right thing to tell you.
 - You are treating the information seriously. It was not their fault.
 - You are going to inform the appropriate person.
 - You/ will take steps to protect and support them.
- Record and report the disclosure in line with your safeguarding policy and procedure. (Section 3)

Do not:

- Press the person for more details if they are not comfortable sharing.
- Stop someone who is freely recalling significant events (Don’t say ‘hold on, we’ll come back to that later’; they may not tell you or anybody else again).
- Promise to keep secrets; you have a duty of care to raise safeguarding concerns.
- Make promises you cannot keep such as “this will never happen to you again”.
- Contact the alleged abuser unless they are also a u3a member and it is necessary to do so to safeguard other members.
- Be judgemental.
- Pass on the information other than to those with a legitimate ‘need-to-know’ under your safeguarding policy and procedure.

7. How should you record a safeguarding concern?

- Note what people actually said, using their own words and phrases.
- Describe the circumstances in which the disclosure came about.
- Note the setting and anyone else who was there at the time of the disclosure.
- Separate factual information from your own and others’ opinions.
- Use pen or biro with black ink so that the report can be photocopied if needed.

- Be aware that your report may be required later as part of a legal action or disciplinary procedure.

8. Key Definitions

Adult at risk

Any person aged 18+ who has need for care and support, is experiencing, or is at risk of abuse or neglect, and as a result of those needs is unable to protect themselves against the abuse or neglect, or risk of it.

Abuse

SECTION 2: Our Policy.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to demonstrate the commitment of Cheadle u3a to safeguarding their members and to ensure that everyone involved in Cheadle u3a is aware of:

- The legislation, policy, and procedures for safeguarding adults.
- Their role and responsibility for safeguarding adults.
- What to do or who to speak to if they have a concern relating to the welfare or wellbeing of an adult within Cheadle u3a.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility, and members must bring any safeguarding concerns they have to the Safeguarding group (this could be via their group leader). Members should follow their code of conduct and not keep any concerns they have to themselves.

This policy and procedure is written to enable the whole Cheadle u3a Committee to address issues where there are safeguarding concerns. Safeguarding includes incidents between members, concerns regarding abuse or neglect that a u3a member may be experiencing outside of the u3a, health related issues or previous or pending criminal convictions.

Cheadle u3a Committee has concluded that the most effective approach to implement this policy and procedure will be via a Safeguarding Group led by the Chair. Currently this is a group of four committee members, the Chair and four others, who have relevant safeguarding training, knowledge.

Scope

This safeguarding policy and procedure apply to all members involved in Cheadle u3a, including the committee, group leaders and members, and relates to all concerns about the safety and wellbeing of members taking part in u3a activities and in the wider community.

Safeguarding Commitments

To implement this policy, Cheadle u3a. will ensure that all members will be aware of the safeguarding procedures and know who to contact if they have a concern relating to the welfare or wellbeing of an adult.

Cheadle u3a committee has a duty of care to its members, is committed to upholding this safeguarding policy in order to protect its members.

Cheadle u3a recognises that some people are potentially at risk of abuse and neglect. Where abuse or neglect is suspected Cheadle u3a will aim to respond in a prompt and efficient manner to any situation where there is a risk of or perceived risk of harm.

Cheadle u3a does not hold any statutory authority. Matters of concern will be reported to the relevant safeguarding authorities and charity regulatory authorities, as appropriate. This may include the local authority, the local multi-agency safeguarding hub (MASH), or the police in an emergency.

Where there are concerns for a member's wellbeing or safety, Cheadle u3a Safeguarding Group will consider the safeguarding risks and views of the member concerned, seek advice and support from the Trust where necessary, and, if required, contact the relevant statutory authorities.

It is not appropriate for Cheadle u3a to take the lead role in any Safeguarding Enquiry (under Section 42 of the Care Act 2014 (England and Wales)).

Cheadle u3a recognises that there are various forms of abuse which can be perpetrated by volunteers, members, relatives, friends, and neighbours. Cheadle u3a will neither condone nor tolerate any form of abuse or neglect and believes that all people should be able and, where necessary, enabled to live in an environment which is safe and free from harm.

Cheadle u3a will put the wellbeing of those at risk of harm first, and they will be actively supported to communicate their views and the outcomes they want to achieve. Those views and wishes will be respected and supported unless there are overriding reasons not to. Any actions taken will respect the rights and dignity of all those involved and be proportionate to the risk of harm.

A list of the types of safeguarding risks and harm can be found in Section 1 and on the England and Wales Charity Commission website, which is applicable generally.

Cheadle u3a will monitor the implementation of this policy and procedure annually through its committee.

When following the safeguarding procedure Cheadle u3a will strive to uphold the principles that those involved in incidents are entitled to:

- privacy
- be treated with dignity and respect
- lead an independent life and to be enabled to do so

- choose how they live their lives
- the protection of the law
- have their human and civil rights upheld regardless of ethnic origin, gender, sexuality, impairment or disability, age, religious or cultural background.

Cheadle u3a will also follow the principles enshrined within the England and Wales Care Act 2014].

- Principle 1 – Empowerment – whereby the approach is focused on the individual making their own decision and gaining informed consent, where possible.
- Principle 2 – Prevention – seeking to take steps to prevent issues from arising or escalating.
- Principle 3 – Proportionality – responding in a proportionate way to the issue/s being presented.
- Principle 4 – Protection – seeking to keep the membership safe and protection for those deemed to be at risk.
- Principle 5 – Partnership – reporting incidents to the relevant statutory bodies and liaising with the Trust.
- Principle 6 – Accountability – accurate recording of incidents. Reporting incidents, as required, to the Trust and to relevant regulatory authorities.

Procedure

Introduction

Cheadle u3a has a responsibility to ensure that its committee members and group leaders understand their safeguarding responsibilities.

Depending on the nature of the allegation and the identified risk, Cheadleu3a will support the alleged victims and the alleged perpetrators of any abuse as well as any volunteer who becomes aware of an allegation in so far as this does not compromise any safeguarding enquiry or investigation into the allegation or place other adults at risk.

Cheadle u3a will make every effort to respect the confidentiality of any information that is disclosed under this policy and procedure, however due to the seriousness of allegations confidentiality is not absolute. Information will be recorded and stored securely in accordance with Data Protection Act 2018, but information may have to be shared with relevant authorities on a 'need-to-know' basis only, to prevent:

- Danger to a person's life
- Danger to a person's health
- Danger to others
- Danger to the community
- To facilitate the investigation of a serious crime

Courses of action

- Cheadle u3a's approach to safeguarding will include members who exhibit health concerns that could put themselves or others at risk, convictions (previous or pending) that include offences of a sexual or violent nature, inappropriate behaviour exhibited by a member including sexual advances, bullying, aggression or violent behaviour, harassment and/or discrimination. This can include behaviour exhibited face to face as well as electronic communications or via social media platforms.
- Where a safeguarding concern is raised, steps will be taken, as needed, to ensure the safety of adult/s at risk is secured as a priority. The steps to take to address this will be discussed and agreed between the members of the Safeguarding Group, in the first instance. No Safeguarding group member will act in isolation when dealing with a safeguarding concern. The steps taken should be documented and stored securely in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018.
- Where Cheadle u3a Safeguarding group becomes aware of a safeguarding concern, the first step will be to gather information to assist with the decision as to the next steps. Safeguarding risks will be considered and recorded as soon as possible after the concern comes to attention.

- Where it is deemed that the risk is high and immediate action needs to be taken, the Safeguarding group member will contact the relevant authorities and the Trust for advice and support.
- As far as possible, the adult at risk's wishes will be respected as to whether to refer any concerns to the local authority as a Safeguarding Enquiry under Section 42 of the Care Act 2014. However, it may be necessary to override their wishes to act in their best interests.
- In considering risk, the Safeguarding group will consider the level of risk and the action that needs to be taken accordingly. Indicators of risk will include:
 - Risk to the individual member
 - Risk to other members within the u3a
 - Reputational risk for the individual u3a and the u3a movement as a whole
- Where the risk is not deemed to be high, but support is needed, a Cheadle u3a Safeguarding group member will contact the Trust to discuss the concerns and seek additional assistance in developing the risk assessment. Assistance will always be sought before moving to exclude any member from the u3a on the basis of a safeguarding risk.
- Once the risk information is gathered, the Safeguarding group will formulate the most appropriate course of action. This could include excluding members from certain groups i.e., groups held in people's homes, requesting that a member attends the u3a with a carer or excluding a member from a group run by a particular group leader.
- Depending on the nature of the allegation it may be necessary to pursue the incident following Cheadle u3a's complaints or disciplinary procedure. Where it is decided that this is the best course of action the matter will not be investigated by any party that was privy to the initial reporting of the incident.
- All actions taken will be recorded. Any records will remain confidential to the Safeguarding group unless a prior decision has been taken to share the record with the relevant statutory bodies.
